

NASHVILLE, TENN.
TENNESSEAN

STATINTL

M. 131,797
S. 212,037

MAY 9 1966

Stewart Heads Library Group

CHATTANOOGA (AP)—David Marshall Stewart, director of the Nashville Public Library, was named president of the Tennessee Library Association at the close of the annual TLA convention.

Stewart, former librarian for the Central Intelligence Agency,

David Marshall Stewart
Former CIA Librarian

successes Mrs. Florence Leech Simmons of Chattanooga.

A native of Nashville and a Navy veteran, Stewart served as library director of State College of Memphis, then joined the Library of Congress.

AFTER RECEIVING his degree from Peabody College he took his first library post in 1939 as reference and circulation assistant at Vanderbilt University Library.

Miss Helen Lockhart of Jackson, who is with the Shiloh Regional Library, was named TLA vice-president. She also becomes president-elect, and will assume the presidency at next year's convention in Nashville.

Other officers elected yesterday were Miss Anna Loe Russell, reference librarian at Peabody College in Nashville, treasurer, and Mrs. Imogene Brew-